ELKS' MINSTRELS!

GOING? SURE!

Last night for the first time the soloists, endmen, chorus, and the orchestra all met together at the Opera House for the first dress rehearsal. "Sonny" Cunha combined all these different units into a harmonious whole and the result is more than gratifying. When the merry-makers finally appear before the public, "Sonny" will surely come in for a great big share of appreciation, for he has been the leading factor in every department of the show.

The reserved-seat sale began yesterday morning at Bergstrom's music store and, although the result was very gratifying, there are still a large number of desirable seats. But it will mean that those who are contemplating attending the Opera House either next Thursday or Saturday evening will have to be very prompt in securing their tickets. It will be money well spent, for the whole cast is determined to out-do themselves. Better come.

FILIPINOS DOING PROMOTION WORK

The Philippine Contabulary Band was invited to Washington by the President-elect in order to correct the impression reigning in many parts of the United States that the dog-eating horror-typifies the Filipino, scores of poor, half-naked spearmen from Benguet have been led from fair to fair by wide-awake managers in the United States to the detriment of the Philippines. Taft realizes that he cannot do much to help the islands so long as the view prevails that the Filipino is a savage, wild beyond recall. He hopes that the tour of the band will dispel this illusion, and it should prove salutary.

Colonel Mark L. Hersey travels in command of the party. There has been a big demand for tickets for both performances at the Bergstrom Music Co., but there are still many good seats left. Prices are 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

OAHU SERVICE CO. FILES ARTICLES

Articles of incorporation of a new concern, the principal object of which will be to run restaurants and a laundry, have been filed with the Treasurer.

The articles of incorporation show that R. H. Trent, Robert Murphy, Lewis B. Reeves, Irwin H. Beadle and Thos. E. Robinson have formed the corporation under the name of "Oahu Service Co., Ltd.", the purpose of which is to operate restaurants and lunch stands, to carry on a steam and hand laundry, engage in merchandise and real estate business, etc. The life of the corporation is set at 50 years and the five incorporators are named as directors. The capital stock is $1500, divided into fifteen $100 shares, with the privilege of extension up to $15,000. The capital stock has all been subscribed, Trent, Murphy and Reeves each taking five shares.

WALDRON NAMES HIS COMMITTEESTOMORROW

Tomorrow morning President Fred L. Waldron of the Merchants' Association will announce the personnel of the standing committees for the ensuing year. Waldron now has the matter under consideration but has not wholly made up his mind and will not do so until tomorrow.

The published report that Captain W. G. Fay would retire from active service in 1940 is erroneous. The Captain will not retire until three years later, namely 1943. He expects to engage in chicken-raising then, if there still should be a demand for eggs and broilers.

When work will begin on the permanent post at Leluehu is a matter that has not been definitely decided, as far as local officers are aware. The present quarters are very comfortable, and, though no long delay is likely to occur, it is not thought probable that the Government will begin construction work with any undue haste.

MURIEL CAMPBELL'S

that she be allowed to join with Hawaiian Trust Co. In the petition for probate. Anderson stated that there was no objection to this, as long as his client did not in any way commit itself as to who should be properly appointed as executor, as this question would be raised later on. On this understanding the motion was granted.

Thompson and Davis took the stand and testified as to the property, value and death of the testatrix, and also to the fact that the will offered for probate was actually the last will made by Mrs. Campbell Parker. Fred Harrison and A. M. Brown testified as witnesses to the will. The will was then admitted to probate.

The petition of Miss Campbell to be executrix jointly with the Hawaiian Trust Co. was then taken up, it being contested by the Trust Company. The section of the will under which the petitioner claimed she was entitled to the appointment, came up for consideration, but after considerable argument the petition was denied. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court.

Nevada Breaks Loose In Anti-Jap Agitation

CARSON CITY, Nev., Feb. 1.—The Nevada State Legislature, in committee of the whole, today reported favorably on the adoption of an anti-Japanese resolution, which criticizes President Roosevelt and designates the Japanese as parasites on the world and a menace to civilization. The resolution recommends that California pay no attention to the coercion and the interference of the President in the passage of the anti-Japanese measures before the California Legislature.

NEWBERRY SAYS FREQUENT CHANGES RETARD PROGRESS OF NAVY DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.—Secretary of the Navy Newberry, in answer to questions asked him today by members of the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs, stated that the frequent changes in the Secretaryship of the Department were largely responsible for the lack of progress in the Navy.

APPEARED TO THE POPE IN VISION

Joan of Arc Alleged to Have Brought Pontiff Words of Encouragement.

Rome, Jan. 7.—The Italia publishes a report which has caused a sensation in ecclesiastical circles, that Joan of Arc recently appeared in a vision to the Pope and addressed to him solemn words of encouragement, exhorting him to continue his present policy which she promised would shortly be crowned with triumph.

It was while the Pope was engaged in devout prayer and meditation in his private oratory, immediately after the ceremony of reading the decree of beatification that the apparition is said to have appeared. It was noticed that when the Pope came out of the oratory he was very pale and for several days maintained a marked silence.

WILL PUT ON SKETCH ENTITLED "JOHN D."

Sinclair Writing Play Giving Rockefeller View of Himself

Upton Sinclair proposes to give players a realistic picture of John D. Rockefeller in a socialistic environment.

"I am staging a one-act play entitled 'John D.,'" said Sinclair, "and I want to hear from an actor who looks like him to take the part."

Having recently divorced himself from the rank of novelist or publicist, Sinclair has chosen the drama as a means of spreading socialistic doctrine. "Prince Hagen," a fantastic drama of socialistic intent, was produced for the first time at the Valencia Theater. Now Sinclair proposes to invade a slightly different field.

"I am working out a plan to put three one-act plays on the stage with a company which I have chosen and drilled myself. They are socialists, plays and I intend to put the company on the road. The presentation of the play 'John D.' will be thoroughly good-natured," Sinclair asserted. "In it the oil king is shown to be greatly interested in the socialistic view of himself. In the end he is left appalled before the vision of the impending revolution."
